Are we supposed to be having a weekly discussion? Or is this just a space for us to ask chapter specific questions and get answers?

Kelly,

My understanding is that it is for us to ask specific questions related to that chapter.

Excuse me! This is sort of what I thought... but also what I was hoping to hear as well. Thank you for your input!

There is no graded discussion. The forum is for questions/answers about the particular chapters so that I do not respond.
